Textbook

Stewart, Calculus: Early Transcendentals, 7th edition, with Enhanced Webassign, Thomson Brooks/Cole.

Course Overview

This course will cover Chapters 1- 6 of the textbook. You can find the suggested syllabus of the math department at www.math.illinois.edu/Bourbaki/Syllabi/syl220.html

WebAssign

WebAssign is an online homework system. Once purchased you can login to Web Assign (<https://www.webassign.net/uiuc/login.html>) with your NetID and Active Directory password. Please contact with WebAssign

Student Support (<https://webassign.com/support/student-support/>) if you need help.

Purchasing Options

You can find details about the cost of the textbook and WebAssign at <http://go.illinois.edu/CalculusBookInfo>

Course Website

Course materials can be found at <http://rtsl-edge.cs.illinois.edu/nerimanno> and <https://compass2g.illinois.edu>.

Calculators

You are allowed to use only basic non-programmable, non-graphic calculators for the class.

Homeworks

Homework from the textbook and reading will be assigned after each lecture to be completed before next class meeting. Homework is not turned in for grade. Quizzes and tests will be prepared with the assumption that you have done with all assignments.

Attendance

You are expected to attend each lecture. If you miss any lecture, please check the course website and compass to follow lectures and announcements.

Quizzes

You will be given 2 quizzes each week during our lecture hours. They will consist of 2 problems. You are supposed to complete your quizzes individually. Your lowest 3 quiz grades will be dropped when computing your final grade. Thus, make-up quizzes will not be given.

Tests

There will be given 3 evening exams. You must bring your student ID to all the exams.

Final Exam

The final exam is cumulative. You must bring your student ID to the final exam.

Academic Integrity

The students' academic integrity code can be found in the Student Code - Article 1 Part 4. In particular, cheating of any kind on any graded material may result in an "F" for the course and be reported to both the student's college and the Senate Committee on Student Discipline.

DRES Accomodations

If you are recommended for exam accommodations by DRES, you should notify me and present a letter from DRES. Any accommodation on test must be made one week in advance.
